

Stainless steel grate designed and tested to EN 1253

Removable debris strainer (optional)

Constant Depth Stainless Steel Channel

Vertical outlet with or without fixed strainer (outlet size to project's requirements)

Sloped Stainless Steel Channel
Up to 3 metres channel run segment (longer runs will be modular)

Outlet unit able to be positioned anywhere along the run (depth to project's requirements)

Bolted flange and gasket connection

Rollover end plate to accept edge profile option so consistency is maintained

1.5mm thick walled stainless steel channel

Elbow (and tee) section if required

Choice of three edge profiles (see below)

Ties to key into concrete